Baker McKenzie FenXun.
奋迅·贝克麦坚时

Yun Chen is a partner at FenXun Partners. He has over fifteen years' experience in IP-related legal services and dispute resolution area.
Yun represents and assists numerous multinational and domestic companies in various fields in handling plenty of IP-related cases, with a particular emphasis on IP infringement, trade secrets and international IP disputes. He works with clients to establish and implement strategies for procuring, protecting, commercializing and enforcing their IP rights and for minimizing risk to their IP assets in China.

At the same time, Yun also represents multiple clients in complex commercial litigation and arbitration matters. Yun's practice crosses industry and borders, with particular experience in industries/fields such as auto, traditional manufacturing, pharmaceuticals (medical devices), construction and engineering.

Before working as a lawyer, Yun had worked in a PRC court for a number of years. Yun's range of experience gained during years of working as a judge and a lawyer allows him to provide comprehensive solutions and advice to clients, whether they are multinational or local Chinese clients, and his success has been widely recognized.

Professional experience

Representative Legal Matters

- Represented a leading giant steel enterprise in multiple litigations in respect of invention patent infringement disputes before the courts, providing legal advice and strategy analysis for related patent invalidation procedures.
- Represented a giant hi-tech company in multiple proceedings in respect of invention patent infringement disputes before the courts and local IP offices.
- Represented a giant Indian auto component manufacturer in civil litigation before Suzhou Court in respect of the trade secrets infringement, and advising in correlative cases.
- Represented a EU chemical enterprise in litigations in respect of invention patent infringement disputes, providing legal advice and strategy analysis for related patent invalidation proceedings.
- Represented a US medical enterprise in multiple litigations in respect of the trademark infringement and unfair competition disputes and related reputation right infringement dispute.
- Represented a US infant nutrition brand in litigations in respect of the trademark infringement and unfair competition disputes before multiple PRC courts.
- Advised multiple pharmaceutical industry enterprises on patent and trade secret management and protection.
- Represented a Chinese distributor of a high-end supercar brand in arbitration with the brand at SHIAC in dispute over the distribution agreement.
- Represented a state-owned listed company in Shanghai in an arbitration case at CIETAC Beijing related to a construction project.
- Represented a leading manufacturing company in Zhejiang in two arbitration cases at CIETAC Shanghai related to equipment purchase agreements.

Recognition

Professional Honors

- Rising Star - Managing IP (MIP), 2022

Qualifications & Education

Admission

- PRC, 2016

Location & Information

Shanghai

+86 21 6105 5977

+86 21 5047 0838

Practices

Dispute Resolution / Intellectual Property

Specialisms

International Arbitration

Languages spoken

Mandarin / English

- Patent Attorney, PRC, 2020

Education

- Nan Jing University (LL.B.) (2006)
- South Paris University (LL.M., in International and European Public Law) (2008)

Baker & McKenzie LLP is a member of Baker & McKenzie International.