Baker McKenzie FenXun.
奋迅·贝克麦坚时

Yingzhe Wang is the managing partner of FenXun Partners and head of the Public M&A and Capital Markets practice group. His major practice areas include restructuring of mid-to-large size SOE reorganization and private companies, acquisitions and restructuring of listed companies, and other types of M&A. Mr. Wang has represented dozens of domestic and foreign companies in various equity or bond offerings and listings in various securities markets (Mainland China, Hong Kong, Singapore and the United States). Mr. Wang has also provided legal services for restructuring projects of listed companies.

Professional experience

Representative Legal Matters

- Guangzhou Baiyun International Airport Co., Ltd. (A shares)
- China Telecom Corporation Limited (H shares)
- Jiangsu Expressway Company Limited (H shares)
- Baoye Group Company Limited (H shares)
- China Shipping Container Lines Company Limited (H shares)
- China COSCO Holding Company Limited (H shares)
- Dalian Port Company Limited (H shares)
- China Communications Construction Company Limited (H shares)
- Shanghai Jin Jiang International (Group) Company Limited (H shares)
- Shannxi Provincial Natural Gas Company Limited (A shares)

Qualifications & Education

Admission

- People's Republic of China, 1998

Location & Information

Beijing / Hong Kong

+ 86 10 5649 6088

Practices

Capital Markets / Mergers & Acquisitions

Specialisms

Corporate Reorganizations

Languages spoken

English / Mandarin

Education

- University of California, Berkeley (LLM) (2008)
- Jilin University (LLB) (1992)

Baker & McKenzie LLP is a member of Baker & McKenzie International.