

Partner

Shanghai

FenXun Partners

Yanfei Zeng is a partner with the Dispute Resolution team of this Firm, focusing on general commercial disrepute resolution and corporate insolvency. With more than 10 years' work experience in this area, Yanfei has accumulated abundant practice experience in the Chinese courts at all levels and in various arbitration institutions. With extensive experience in complex financial litigation and insolvency matters, Yanfei provides strategic counsel to both domestic and international clients navigating high-stakes disputes and bankruptcy related processes.

Professional experience

Representative Legal Matters

- Represented several foreign companies before PRC courts for recognition and enforcement of foreign arbitration awards.
- Represented a top international hotel management brand company in litigation of a hotel management dispute with a hotel owner.
- Represented an international theme park management company in an English arbitration proceeding against the real estate owner.
- Represented a preeminent automobile manufacture in litigation of product liability disputes in China.
- Represented a US manufacture's wholly owned subsidiary in litigation of a trade dispute with a Chinese company, which was successfully settled.
- Represented a famous PE fund to raise arbitration claims against the actual controlling persons of a listed company based on their financial supporting covenants for an investment project, with the disputed amount exceeding RMB 300 million.
- Represented a manufacture in a creditor subrogation claims against LeTV and its investors.

Location & Information

Shanghai

+86 21 6105 8921

Practices

Dispute Resolution

Languages spoken

English / Mandarin / German

- Represented an AMC in the litigation case regarding sale of the shares of a commercial bank before Shanghai Finance Court and Shanghai High Court, with the disputed amount reaching RMB 12.9 billion.
- Represented a subsidiary of a French company in its investment disputes in China and participating in arbitration proceedings in China.
- Represented a commercial bank in an insolvency derivative action for confirmation of security rights, helping the client to recover RMB 100 million in losses.

Qualifications & Education

Admission

- People's Republic of China, 2018

Education

- Peking University (Dr. in Law, Dr. in Law) (2014)
- Hamburg University (Dr. iur.) (2015)

Baker & McKenzie LLP is a member of Baker & McKenzie International.